RUSSIAN PLEADS

Asks Help in Work of Evangelization Conducted Under Difficulties.

FACES TRIAL AT HIS HOME

Is Out on Bail-Big Richmond Audience Hears

Unusual and touching in the ex-treme was the appeal made by Pastor W. Fetler, superintendent of the Rus-san Evangelization Society, of St. Petersburg, for aid in his work in the Russian capital, before a large gather-ling at the Fire-Pastet. ing at the First Baptist Church last

The speaker was to have shared the pulpit with Rev. Robert S. MacArthur, D. D., of New York, but a message to Rev. George W. McDaniel, of the First Baptist Church, late yesterday afternoon, brought the information that it would be impossible for him to be present. The pastor expressed regret at the inability of Dr. MacArthur to come, a loss which, ne s.id, would be almost a gain since it would permit Mr. Fetler to make a longer talk and give a better account of the work in Russia.

Outlines Conditions.

Mr. Fetler began by giving a short sketch of the important work of evangelization that he has undertaken in the Russian capital—a work which was started only four years ago. A Russian by birth, and educated in England, the speaker possesses an enunciation peculiar for its odd intonations and trilled r's, although his sontence structure, for one not born into the language, is remarkably pure and vigorous. The speaker was to have shared the into the language, is remarkably pure and vigorous.

He apparently inherits the Russian apiness for learning foreign tongues, his knowledge of the English language, according to his statement, having been acquired during his four years' residence in London as a student at one of the colleges. His speech was punctuated throughout with the eloquent gestures so characteristic of intense Europeans, and held the closest attention of the audience throughout the address, which lasted more than an hour and a half.

The struggle he is hading in spreading the evangellical faith in Russia, as is apparent from his statements, is a hard one. All the forces of the government and organized Greek Cathpose him. Although the freedom manpose him. Although the freedom manpose him. Although the freedom manfifests of 1905 inaugurated free speech, freedom of the press and liberty of conscience, every petty scheme, said Mr. Fetler, is being invoked by offi-and progress.

Big Opportunity in Russia.

'I don't believe," said the speaker,
"that there has ever been in the whole history of the world a country either in extent of territory or in numbers, so ready for the introduction of the evangelical gospel as Russia is to-day. The country hungers for it. With a population of 150,000000 people, the empire has to-day not "The Grek Cathoir Church is the church of the state, Let it retains its hold only on the ignorax' masses. The intelligent and thinking classes have broken away from it. I can't think that I would be exaggerating it I said that 95 per cent, of the professions and students in the Russian universities are secretly, if not avowedly atheless materialists, or, what is still worse, disciples of Count Leo Tolstoi.

Visit to Tolstoi.

"Those outside of Russia cannot realize to what an extent the pernicious doctrines of Tolstoi have taken hold of the students. The blood of Jesus is a fable, he is said to have declared on one occasion. I went to see him at his fome shortly before his death with an idea, hoping against hope, of influencing him, in my humble way, toward a better conception of the Redeemer. I talked to him a long time, and what do you think he said to me when I was through. 'Pastor Fetler,' he said, 'If a man would come to me and tell me that Jesus come to me and tell me that Jesus come to me and tell me that Jesus Christ had just risen in my garden I wouldn't take the trouble to go and look at Him.' This is the man whose teachings have attained such a fol-teachings have attained such a following."

Mr. Fetler told of the pressing need of a Baptist Church in St. Petersburg. At present meetings are held in rented halls, and these are rapidly being closed to him by the simple expedient of demanding prohibitive rents. Although services are now conducted in twelve places in the Russian capital, these are inadequate to hold the crowds which clamor for admittance. In the four years of his mission to the Russian people, the pastor related, more than 400 converts to the Baptist faith have been made, and more than 1,500 regularly attend services. These are recruited from all classes, rich and

During his five months' tour of America, he stated, he has collected $22,500 for the erection of his church and $20,000 more is needed. He sails for Russia Wednesday of next week to a stand trial in Moscow on the charge of seducing from the fold members of the Greek Catholic Church. His tour in this country was made possible only through the action of American Bapitsts, who furnished $2,500 bail for his appearance at the trial, At the conclusion of his address last night a collection was taken up for his cause. The audience responded liberally.

Speaks of Stolpin.

"I was very sorry to hear of the assaination of Minister Stolppin," said Mir.
